STAFF BIO

Jane Bascle, CPA

INTERIM CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Jane Bascle has more than 35 years of finance and accounting experience working for the public, private and philanthropic sectors during her career. She currently serves as the interim chief financial officer at the CDC Foundation, where she oversees the financial resources, systems, controls and governance that ensure long-term sustainability and organizational impact. She is accountable for the quality and integrity of financial outcomes, providing strategic guidance and decision support while leading through Finance and cross-functional partners.

Before joining the CDC Foundation, Bascle spent more than 10 years in finance and accounting consulting, leading global teams and client engagements across Fortune 500 and mid-size organizations. She has held leadership roles with organizations including Deloitte, BellSouth and the Arthritis Foundation.

Bascle holds a BA in Accounting from Emory University Goizueta School of Business and has an active Certified Public Accounting license in the State of Georgia. She is the member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants the Georgia Society of certified Public Accountants.